

BEST PRACTICES: TEACHING-LEARNING PRACTICES

BEST PRACTICES 2:

1. Special Study Hours for Hostel Students

One of the best practices of the college is to empower overall academic excellence and student's performance.

2. Objectives of the Practice

- To monitor and motivate the students in learning and earn better grades in internal and external examinations.
- To widen their subject knowledge with relevant guidance and enlighten their doubts with faculty instructors.

3. Intended Outcome

- Improved performance of students in internal and external assessments
- Fosters an environment of cooperative learning which identifies student's complexity and finds solutions to sustain improvement of the learning system.

4. The Context

Students staying in hostel face a temporary detachment from their parents and relations. Hostel Study Hour has great advantages for the students.

5. The Practice

- The hours for study are fixed. All the students are to abide by strict discipline.
- The Faculty instructors engage hostel students at class rooms.
- Individual attention will be provided to each student.

6. Evidence of Success

- The learning methodology has enhanced the hostel student's learning quality which is reflected in their overall performance during exams.
- Students have excelled in their internal and external assessments and they focus on getting the best results possible.

7. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

- Identifying suitable faculty instructors and obtaining their convenient time.
- In-charge faculty members had difficulty to alter their duty in case of emergency which was duly overcome through the faculties residing in hostel.
